

AHS Electronic Media Award

The AHS Technology Committee and Awards and Honors Committee jointly administer this award, designed to recognize individuals who have performed outstanding service to the AHS membership and the general public in the area of electronic media. This electronic media should create interest in, educate and promote the AHS to members and the general public. Nominees may have created websites, blogs, electronic magazines, mobile applications, as well as emerging technologies not specifically listed or included in other award categories. This award is presented at the National Convention each year. Rules applying to this award are as follows.

- All nominees must be AHS members
- Any AHS member may nominate a member from any AHS region, including International members, for this award.
- All nominations must be sent to the AHS Technology Chair by no later than September 1 each year.
- Nomination letters must include a website address or a link to the electronic media that can be viewed online.
- In addition to describing the merit of the electronic media and the candidate's worthiness for the award, nomination letters must address the merits of the electronic media relative to the following criteria:
 - Effect on furthering and promoting the mission of the AHS
 - Potential effect on membership growth
 - Educational merit
 - Technical difficulty
 - Ease of use and navigation
 - Aesthetic appeal
- The AHS Board will select the winner at the Fall Board meeting each year.
- The winner is awarded a certificate and a special electronic logo denoting the AHS award that may be used on the website, mobile app or Electronic magazine denoting the AHS Electronic Media award and year awarded.
- The award recipient will be recognized in the Daylily Journal and E-News.
- A member may be nominated for and receive this award more than once.
